The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

We had a little talk with George Casteel the other day and in the course of the conversation we got around to Montana, George's home state, and the next thing we knew we were talking about fish. Three pound Rainbows, fierce Cutthroats and Native Grayling and all stuff like that there. It was a pleasant little diversion into the realm of fancy, at least, we thought so at the time, but durned if it didn't wear on us to the point that we just upped and whipped off a letter to the Montana Chamber of Commerce, asking for fishing information.

— ML —

Reams of literature began to pour in on us, all depicting clear sparkling streams and rivers alive with trout. Now we're hooked worse than any Rainbow ever will be this summer. Those ugly speckled rascals are going to lure us some 1500 miles in the forlorn hope that we might float a little blob of grey hackle over their ugly snoots so enticingly that, smacko! But that's another story.

— ML —

This guy Casteel can not only sell local real estate, but he can sell the stuff by remote control, sight unseen, 1500 miles removed.

— ML —

Speaking of things that attract tourists—we met a Mr. Black the other day who settled in our fair community some three years ago. Mr. Black is a native of Brooklyn, New York. You know what first decided his wife and him on L. G.? That big yaller lemon on Main Street with the boastful slogan, "Best Climate on Earth."

— ML —

Yep, you can't beat a community or a nation for that matter, where the people aren't afraid of being called "corny" by boasting of the advantages in living in such a community or country, and who tingle a bit when the American Flag goes by and when they sing "God Bless America," they boom it right out loud and strong and with real conviction.

— ML —

We're getting pretty far afield from a Montana trout stream, but by George, we have all been guilty of listening to some crack-pot or other tell us that our schools, our government and our ideals are all wrong and should be changed. Okay, now that we've given them their day, let's have ours again—back to the days of real patriotism; loving our country, honoring its people and respecting its traditions. If we want to lead and influence the world, we should never forget those cherished ideals of freedom and justice and equality of opportunity that were the eternal principles upon which our forefathers founded this great nation.

They can call it nationalism, provincialism, isolation or whatever. We'll call it patriotism and be proud of it.

Merchant's Division Racks Up 50 Members

More than 50 business people joined the Merchant's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, it was announced this week by Abe Goldberg, chairman of the group.

Another meeting has been set for Monday, May 16, he said, and 150 more members are expected to sign up.

Division officers pointed out that all of the original group signed after less than a week of contacts by the membership committee.

Tires Flattened By Youthful Pranksters

It was an unhappy day for a score of motorists Sunday night, but it's more unhappy for a group of teenage kids this week who were apprehended by Patrolman Hal Johnson after they released air from the tires of about 20 automobiles along two of the town's shopping and parking streets.

According to the report released by the sheriff's department, the youngsters, ranging in age from 10 to 16 years, methodically deflated tires on autos parked in the market area. They were apprehended near midnight.

Charged with malicious mischief and breaking the curfew, the youngsters were released to the custody of their parents. Parents promised immediate and direct action.

The Department of Motor Vehicles in 1954 revoked 623 drivers licenses for mental disability.

Local Fire Departments to Lead Swimming Pool Carnival Parade

The Spring Valley Fire Department will join the department from Lemon Grove in leading off the Swimming Pool Carnival Parade Friday, May 13 at 7 p.m.

The parade will march from Vista Street to Washington along Broadway and turn in to the St. John's Rodeo Grounds just below Washington.

The carnival will add more dollars to the commmunity swimming pool and all proceeds from the two day affair will be used to swell the total. The carnival is scheduled for May 13 and 14.

Some of the parade features will be the Junior Fire Chiefs of Lemon Grove who will follow in their own midget fire truck. There will be six units of bands, pom-pon girls, baton groups, scouts and the like.

Entertainment features at the carnival will include dancing groups from Myra Sonka's school; Jean Eskridge's school; L. M. Allied School, Mary King's Studios and others. There will also be dancers from Claire Keahi Thompson's Hula Studios.

In the windows of local stores this week are posters made up by local students. A contest was held and the following winners were named:

Wagle, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Ward, recording secretary; Mrs. Bernard LeBlanc, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold McDermott, city council representative, and Mrs. Whitlock, extension officer.

School People Plump for Hegland's Bill

Representatives from the Foothills area attended committee hearings in Sacramento last week in an attempt to promote legislation favorable to school taxpayers. Palmer Svalstad, member of the Grossmont Union High School Board, Bert Betts, member of the Lemon Grove board, and Byron L. Netzley, representative of the San Diego County Administrators Association, sat in on hearings of the ways and means committee reviewing AB 328.

Authored by Sheridan Hegland, local assemblyman, the bill would prevent the pyramiding of school taxes on districts under the state building program. To a district such as Lemon Grove, where both the elementary and high school districts have resorted to this building program, the Hegland bill would mean a tax reduction of 50 to 60 cents.

Although the bill was unanimously approved by the House ways and means committee and has fair chances on the floor there, there may be difficulty obtaining passage in the Senate.

For that reason, residents are asked to write to both Senator Fred Kraft and Senator Hugh T. Donnelly, chairman of the Senate education committee, not only urging support of the measure but also pointing out how beneficial such a law would be to San Diego County residents.

The bill passed the Assembly 80 to 6 Tuesday.

Both Assemblyman Sheridan Hegland and Jack Schrade from this area have been doing much in the interest of the bill. While in Sacramento, Betts, Svalstad, and Netzley talked with all San Diego County legislators concerning AB 328.

Beauties to Vie for 'Fairest' Title

Connie Kratz, a blue eyed blonde who plans to be a model.

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley's entry in the 10th annual Fairest of the Fair—Miss Con-Tour queen pageant will be named this evening during a regular membership meeting of the Lions Club at Michael's Restaurant, beginning at 7 p.m.

Hap Van Nice, project chairman, listed Sandra Jordan, 2181 Ensenada St., Connie Kratz, 2161 El Prado and Beverly Cunningham, 4277 Altadena as candidates for the title.

This evening's victor will go to Del Mar Saturday, June 4. There she will meet 21 other finalists, each a representative of a different city or community. From this select group will come the Fairest of the Fair—Miss Con-Tour.

For her it will be a busy and exciting summer. Her first duty will be to reign over the Camp Pendleton Rodeo, June 11-12, the Exposition and County Fair, June 24 through July 4.

Throughout the year, she reigns over special events as designated by the San Diego Convention and Tourist Bureau.

Members will review and give further consideration to general comprehensive insurance as carried by the school district. John Dail, Lemon Grove businessman, was recently appointed as broker of record.

Some Sort of A LINE

By JACK WOOLSEY

A man should love his wife after her hair turns gray. After all, he has stuck to her through platinum, gold, red, brown and black.

Formation of early habits often has an influence on a person throughout life. Like the fellow whose mother hired a woman to wheel him about when a baby and he has been pushed for money ever since.

A beauty at the beach should realize that as she shows, so shall we peep.

A financial wizard is one whose wife never finds out when he gets a raise in salary.

Often a woman's idea of doing the housework is sweeping the room with a glance.

Last November a doctor limited my neighbor's drinks to one a day. He's now up to June 17, 1958.

Although there is much talk of a third party, we doubt if there will ever be enough bolts from the Democrats and Republicans to hold it together.

The easiest way to save money is occasionally.

An organ recital is not necessarily a woman complaining to her doctor.

Working for money would be a lot more pleasant if it wasn't so taxing.

The Lenten Offering of the children of the area amounted to more than $3600.

Victoria Haselden, who has marksmanship as her hobby, showed her .22 rifle with accessories and trophies she has won. "Those attending this meeting," said Mrs. J. Forster Couts, president, in making the announcement, "should arrive on time and come prepared to stay until the session is over, which will be approximately two hours. Those who come in late or leave early will miss important details, and cannot be considered to have met the requirements satisfactorily."

Every auxiliary member, explained Mrs. Couts, whether active, associate, or life, must attend an indoctrination session—either that designed for her own area or for others—in order to qualify for purchasing and wearing the official auxiliary pin. Registering at the meeting is essential for attendance credit.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

When Sheriff Sergeant Willard Rigley was promoted to the Crimes of Violence detail, and his office removed from the Justice Court to a downtown address recently, his transfer was viewed with regret and alarm by those of us who were acquainted with his work in Lemon Grove.

Sgt. Rigley was called upon to serve the entire county in general, this district in particular, and to serve Lemon Grove neither better nor worse than he served the surrounding areas. However, he did give more of his time, particularly his off-duty time, to the service of this community. His work with teenagers has been astounding. The names of some of the off-spring of the town's better-known citizens have been kept off police records because Rigley took the young law-breakers in tow, gave them a Dutch-uncle lecture, listed their mis-deeds in his own personal file and checked back on them often enough to make them realize that law-breaking in Lemon Grove had positive obligations.

He also gave dignity and humaness to these chores. I have personally talked to many youngsters who ran afoul of the law, after Rigley got through giving them some of the facts of life. One of these boys works for me now. Almost without exception they credit Sgt. Rigley with helping to straighten out their thinking.

You can easily see that the officer gave to his community's needs above and beyond the call of duty.

It should surprise no one that a certificate of appreciation, duly signed by some of the town's church, school and civic leaders, is being presented to Sgt. Rigley for his selfless public service. Because this token of appreciation rose as a voluntary effort from people wanting to show their feelings it proves rather succinctly that those dedicating themselves to public service do not necessarily run the gamut of public criticism. Lawbreaking will always be publicized in honest newspapers.

This then proves the lie of a letter to the editor written last week by a water board director in which he complained that "if the same amount of effort" I used against "people doing public service were directed to constructively assist the agency involved, we would have community unity so badly needed."

This ought to convince him that I am not going to defend the water board against the people . . . when it is the people who need defense against those dabbling in tax deeded property . . . property which rightfully belongs to taxpayers . . . not the water board members.

It is refreshing to note that in the case of the certificate of appreciation to Rigley, as with the case of the petition for the recall of the water board member, residents signed either or both with a great amount of enthusiasm.

Although Sandra Jordan, Connie Kratz and Beverly Cunningham would all be capable representatives of Lemon Grove in the Fairest of the Fair contest, I'm sorta pulling for Connie (Hint! Hint!)

Congrats to Bob House who recently defeated Jerry McIntire by 202 votes in the race for the presidency of State College for next year. . . . Probably no other person in the Grove is pulling for the Padres as strong as I am, save Eddie Erautt. But one thing gripes me: whenever the Padres lose, they really get mauled, and whenever the pennant holders win, they always have to shatter my nerves by edging their hardball opponents in the closing frame of the game. Quite a nerve-racking ordeal listening to their games. . . . This week's top pop tune: "Ballad of Davy Crockett" by Tennessee Ernie Ford. . . . Davy Crockett and Hopalong Cassidy will highlight the North Island Benefit Carnival, May 27-30.

Songwriters Club to File Incorporation Papers

The San Diego branch of Musi-Lyr Songwriters met at the home of Jack Gane recently. Eighteen were present. Mrs. Laura Gastiger, president of the mother club in Los Angeles, was present, as was treasurer, Ted Ahpearl, and Mrs. Ahpearl.

Mrs. Gastiger said that she was ready to sign the papers of incorporation. The club now has 102 members. Most are in Los Angeles, but there are members in several other cities in the United States, and one in Canada. There are three members from Spring Valley.

The Musi-Lyr Songwriters will meet the second Saturday of each month at the home of Jack Gane, 4740 Harbinson St., La Mesa. The meetings are open to the public.

LOCAL GIRLS TRAINING IN TEACHING

Three future teachers from the Lemon Grove area preparing for classroom careers at State College are busy gaining practical experience with pupils at three local schools.

They and other teachers in the making are given ample opportunity to understand children and to work effectively with them. Hundreds of student teachers have found their practice work with small fry not only interesting but also extremely valuable in their educational preparation.

Among the local education interns or "practice teachers" are Miss Dorothy Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Cummings, 1380 Skyline Drive, Monterey Heights; Miss Marilyn Engberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Engberg, 9454 Crest Drive, Spring Valley; and Miss Barbara Yarger, daughter of Mrs. Ollie Yarger, 3420 Sweetwater Springs.

Prospective teachers at State College first learn to relate theory to practice under direction of teachers and a staff of specialists in the Campus Laboratory School. As they grow in knowledge and skill they assume increasing responsibility.

In one course, they participated in class work with Lab School pupils five days weekly for one semester.

When they complete this participation phase they are ready for internship in teaching—final step in the teacher training program. In actual school rooms they practice all phases of teaching activity for an hour each school day.

Miss Engberg and Miss Yarger are Grossmont High School graduates and Miss Cummings is a graduate of San Diego High School.

MT. HELIX COUNCIL OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED NEXT WEEK

New officers for Mt. Helix Council will be installed next week when that group meets on Wednesday, May 11 at the La Mesa Education Center. Beginning at 9 a.m. with the traditional coffee hour, the program also includes the historian's report of the year's activities.

Mrs. Byron L. Netzley, Ninth District extension director, will install the following officers for Mt. Helix Council for 1955-56: Mrs. Don Irwin, president; Mrs. J. M. Gillean, vice president; Mrs. Charles Wilkinson, secretary; Mrs. H. K. Thurslund, treasurer; Mrs. H. T. Espe, historian, and Robert Dryden, auditor.

All new unit presidents and officers in the elementary P-TA's in Lemon Grove and La Mesa are cordially invited to attend this final meeting of this year's council members, according to Mrs. S. K. Solleder, retiring president.

KING AND QUEEN TO BE CHOSEN FOR MAY DAY PROGRAM

The traditional May Day program at Golden Avenue School is scheduled this spring for 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, May 10. All classes in the school will present entertainment which they and their teachers are now busily preparing. A king and a queen, elected to reign over the festival, are Bruce Morgan from Mr. Papin's sixth grade and Dora Alexander from Mrs. Loy Holmquist's sixth grade. Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Morgan, 7992 Palm Avenue of Lemon Grove, and Dora is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alexander, 3191 Massachusetts, Lemon Grove. Boys and girls from each grade level have been chosen as royal attendants.

The May Day program is open to the public, and parents and other school patrons are invited to attend.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WINDS-UP GOOD YEAR

Junior Red Cross representatives of the Lemon Grove Junior High culminated their year's activities last week with a film describing Junior Red Cross activity in secondary schools. Made in Los Angeles, the picture shows the many ways in which student members contribute to the welfare of other children, both in the United States and abroad.

Mrs. June Mason directs the local group made up of 15 boys and girls who represent homerooms. During the school year the students completed many projects to be sent to hospitals and children's homes.

DEMOS TO STUDY PLANS TO WIN

G. K. Williams, a Coronado newspaperman, and Zella Crown, women's vice chairman of the 30th district of the State Central Committee, said that about 500 Democratic party leaders are expected to participate in a regional round-table on May 5, 6 and 7 to assess ways and means of bringing about a 1956 party victory at the polls. Williams is also vice chairman of the Central Committee.

A dinner meeting Thursday at the San Diego Hotel will kick-off the three day study. Senator Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) will speak.

Registration for the round table is $2 and tickets for the dinner are $10.

LOCAL PASTOR BREAKS INTO PRINT

Don Cooke, pastor of the Lemon Grove Methodist Church, became an author this week when an article he wrote appeared in CLASSMATE, a weekly magazine distributed throughout the nation to Methodists.

The article, titled "Pointed Paragraphs," suggests that time be taken to see the wonders of the universe and use our brains to think on a higher plane.

Tempo of the article is set by his illustration of two men standing at Grand Canyon. One says "What a miracle of beauty!" The other remarked, "What a hole in the ground!"

"ADAM AND FALLEN MAN" LESSON-SERMON TEXT

The uplifting power of God made manifest in His great love for man keynotes the Lesson-Sermon "Adam and Fallen Man" in the Christian Science churches Sunday.

"As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive" (I Cor. 15:22) is the Golden Text of the sermon.

A reference from Revelation (21:3, 7) develops this thought. It reads, "I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, . . . and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. . . . He that overcometh shall inherit all things."

!THE SHOW'S THE THING!

"Bad Day at Black Rock," is a drama that appears on the screen once in a blue moon, and is a pic full of suspense and emotion that it keeps the viewing audience on the edge of their seats till the final line. This fascinating, unusual treatment of murder and rebellion, stars Spencer Tracy, Ann Francis, Robert Ryan, Dean Jagger, Walter Brennan and John Ericson. The movie opens at the Grove Theatre this Wednesday, May 4. The movie was filmed on location near Mt. Whitney and Death Valley. This production is not a western, but a suspenseful drama in modern times, around 1945, immediately following the war. Tracy's portrayal as Macreedy, the avenger, is sensational. Ryan also scores as the racially intolerant Reno Smith, who, until he meets Macreedy, breaks any man in his way.

Arabian Nights in Cinemascope is the best way to sum up "Black Rock's" companion feature for Wednesday. The pic in question is "The Adventures of Hajji Baba." This movie is an odd but popular type film, blended with gay romance, fairy tale mood, sadism, swordplay and general nonsense. The movie was rated as good when it first hit Broadway and stars John Derek and Elaine Stewart. Throughout the picture the song "Hajji Baba" is heard on sound track, by Nat "king" Cole. The main feature for the Saturday matinee is "The Plunderers" starring Rod Cameron.

Almost every Cinemascope movie is concerned with spectacles, musicals and outdoor dramas. Now it has entered the mystery-field with its latest movie entitled "Black Widow," which opens Sunday at the Grove show. It stars Ginger Rogers, George Raft, Van Heflin, Gene Tierney and Peggy Ann Garner. The co-feature is "Tanga Tika."—B. T.
